JUNE 2025

AUTHENTIC WORSHIP ✝ INTENTIONAL RELATIONSHIPS ✝ SACRIFICIAL SERVICE ✝ RADICAL GENEROSITY

For this edition of our St. John's Eagle Messenger, I'm going to write about something with which I have no exceptional ability – observing the Sabbath. Yet still I have great need to hear as I've been invited, and possibly even do as I've been commanded.

"Jesus said to them, 'Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest awhile.'" Rest. A chance to renew, to stop, to slow down and allow our soul to catch up to our body. Rest. An end of work, if only for a little while. Rest. An opportunity to stop doing and simply be. Rest. What word do you know better evokes a deep breath and a long exhale? Rest. A beautiful word!

Jesus' simple invitation causes me to pause (that's a miracle) long enough to elicit a surprisingly strong reaction. The only thing that makes sense to my reaction is that I have filled my life, for years, with so much activity, so much work, so many obligations that the very idea of rest is nearly foreign. Honestly, I'm not complaining. I love my life and would rather be busy than not. It's more an observation that somewhere in all I am privileged and appreciative to do I think I've forgotten how to rest. I suspect that I'm not alone. A blessing of the pandemic resulted in many getting a chance to step out of their routine and shift to staying home without an excuse. For many congregations they were gifted the opportunity to stop the tyranny of urgency without an excuse and hit a reset after some time of reflection. For us at St. John's we never stopped, in fact, we prayerfully and intentionally engaged more activity and programming than before the pandemic – online, outdoors, and in-person (of course observing social distancing recommendations) with a belief that our purpose was best expressed through the privilege to provide care by feeding your souls.

We're all familiar with the commandment to keep the Sabbath holy most often interpreted to mean attend church. A better interpretation is discovered, I learned from a seminary professor, when we remember the slaves in Egypt whose time was never their own and never one that came with a guaranteed period of rest. I'd bet many of us find ourselves in a place not all that different from those slaves. The major difference is that our slavery is self-constructed, self-imposed, and therefore more difficult to acknowledge as unhealthy and in being unable to do so we find ourselves unable to overcome that which keeps us in bondage. We are enslaved to unhealthy definitions of success and therefore put few limits on work. We are enslaved to ideas about our children having every opportunity possible and therefore schedule them into frenetic lives and wonder why they have a hard time focusing. We are enslaved to the belief that the only thing that will bring contentment is more money, more rooms in our homes, more cars, more things to put on our resumes or in our closets, more of just about anything.

Please hear again the words of Jesus' simple invitation to, "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest awhile." This is not just an invitation to take a day off or even go on vacation. This is an invitation to break free from the prison we've constructed from a belief that happiness is found in the accumulation of more, and more means non-stop work.

The rewards offered in observing a Sabbath rest include a chance to step back and gain some distance from all the things that usually drive and consume us that we might detect God's presence and blessing, so that we can experience a sense of contentment and give thanks. That's hard to do. No wonder the 23rd Psalm says the Lord "makes me lie down in green pastures." We are a people that desperately needs rest, yet resists it. And so the Lord commands it.

As we enter this summer season I invite you to rest. I will join you in reflecting on how much time is spent together, spent outdoors, and spent enjoying all the things we've worked so hard to attain. With you I will remember that God desires more for us. What will we as individuals and collectively NOT DO this week: screen time, office paperwork, an obligation or opportunity that isn't essential to our soul care. What will we DO this week: a long walk with a friend or spouse (or a short one), playing catch with your child, or spend time alone to contemplate your blessings and respond to God with thanksgiving and gratitude.

UPCOMING WORSHIP

Sunday, June 8 @ 9:30 am
Pentecost Worship Celebration
Graduate Recognition

On Pentecost, we celebrate that we have been given an Advocate to accompany us. Poured out in wind and fire, water, wine, and bread, the Holy Spirit abides in and among us. We give thanks that God speaks to each of us, no matter our origins, language, or life path. Filled with the Spirit of truth, we go out from worship to proclaim the saving power of Christ's love and the freedom of God's grace with all the world.

Sunday, June 15 @ 9:30 am
Holy Trinity Worship Celebration
Father's Day

"O Lord our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!" Today we celebrate the holy Trinity. Paul writes that through Jesus we have peace with God, whose love pours into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, giving us lasting hope. We celebrate the gracious One-in-Three, eternal Three-in-One, as we worship in community; as we share water and word, bread and wine; and as we bring God's love and hope to our neighbors.

As a way of supporting each other this summer I am inviting you to spend time, caring, joy-filled, Spirit-filled time with your friends at St. John's. I invite you to attend and participate in gatherings to feast together and learn. Gatherings to watch a movie and enjoy some holy conversation about how the movie touched us. Gatherings to read a book together and share our thoughts in a safe space without judgment. Gatherings to simply be together and celebrate the joy found in authentic community. I extend an invitation for you to intentionally create a Sabbath community with encouragement, consolation, and celebration at the heart of those gatherings.

It won't be easy. Many of us may have to give up some of the habits we've acquired; but who knows, along with what we lose we may just find our lives again. And before you hit send on an email me or call me, I know! I started the letter to you this month by admitting, confessing even that I am not a good example. I'm praying that by hanging out with all of you this summer I will develop for myself and for all of you a better way of truly living the abundant life God has promised by living the life that God has commanded.

Be blessed!
Pastor Bob

Care packages were sent to our college students during finals week. Many thanks were expressed by grateful students receiving the boxes filled with nourishing treats and words of encouragement during a stressful time!

STRENGTH IN COMMUNITY

Reflections on travel to Cuernavaca Mexico

By: Tristan Ellixson

I had a pretty good visual of what the trip to Mexico was going to entail from talking to Pastor Bob. But there was a little fear in the back of my head that I was going to fall behind in some way. I wanted to be as prepared as possible. Before arriving in Mexico, I could already feel this energy and a sense of engaging community. Even though I don't attend St. John's Church regularly and I didn't know half the people on the trip, everyone was still welcoming and treated me like family.

When I went to visit the people in wheelchairs, I thought it was very moving how they did not make excuses for their disabilities and they embraced them instead. In America there are government programs that support disabled people with money because they don't have anywhere to work. In Mexico they create businesses that provide jobs that are specifically made for the purpose of employing people with disabilities because they do not have welfare or people to care for them, so they take care of themselves. They make the best with what they are given. I believe that not making excuses for themselves makes an even stronger community. Hard times create tough people, and that is what I saw at Wellspring Karitas - strong people.

It was a great opportunity to visit a different country and to experience their culture. Thank you Pastor Bob for giving me this opportunity and for giving me new perspectives.

WHAT DO YOU WANT TO KNOW?

By: Cathy Krause

We have discussed many topics in the last 4 years. Usually I get interested in some Bible story, phrase, or person...and it is research time! However, it could be allergies or the end of preschool, but I need your help.

What would you like to know? We have discussed Old Testament topics like Abram and Sarai, Esther, Jacob's sheep, Jericho, and Melchizedek. New Testament topics included the good Samaritan, breakfast at the beach, Epiphany, Pentecost, a three-part series on society in Jesus' time; and the Sanhedrin, Jesus and the Romans. Sacrifice of thanksgiving, fear of the Lord, Israel/Judah/Palestine, church colors, truth, third Heaven, a few definitions, and a book review of The Shack were also explored.

If you could email me your suggestions, I will do the research and try to explain what I uncover. You can contact me at cmkrause298@gmail.com. Many thanks!

HEARTFELT THANKS FROM OPERATION 143

"Over the last several months your gift has been matched not only once by people in the community but 2 more times by another church and a large company. The church has not given to us before so this is a new contact and partner. The company gives normally one time a year in the summer so this is a new donation also. I just think about how God used you as seed to grow His purpose and our belief. I am so thankful for your hearts for your community and those around. Thank you all so much."

PLANTING HOPE – ONE POTATO AT A TIME

By: Shannon Omlor

On Saturday, April 26, St. John's and Good Shepherd UCC were buzzing with energy and purpose. Members from both congregations came together for a hands-on mission: slicing up 5,000 pounds of seed potatoes for IHartHarvest—also known as The Potato Project.

This heart-driven nonprofit, based in Berks County, is on a mission to grow fresh produce for local families in need. All crops are donated to Helping Harvest Food Bank, which serves Berks, Schuylkill, and parts of northern Montgomery Counties.

For 10 years, St. John's has stood behind The Potato Project—offering both volunteer support and financial backing. Now, entering its 16th growing season, IHartHarvest continues to rely entirely on volunteers to get the job done—from prepping the seed potatoes in spring to digging up the harvest in fall.

The past two years have seen Good Shepherd UCC join in the effort, turning the shared church parking lot (or basement on a rainy day!) into a joyful assembly line of faith and fellowship. Together, volunteers prepared 100 bags of seed potatoes, which will soon be planted. If all goes as expected, those 5,000 pounds will yield a whopping 35,000 pounds of fresh potatoes—every bit of it donated to families in need.

And the work doesn't stop there. Come September, St. John's members will head out to the fields to help bring in the harvest—and everyone is welcome to lend a hand. Details and volunteer registration can be found on our website this fall.

TEACHING TIME

Are you new to Lutheranism?

You may or may not be familiar with some of the 'Lutheran Buzzwords' we use here. Let's get familiar!

TIME AFTER PENTECOST

From June 22 until mid-November, we celebrate standard Sundays, on which we gather, hear the word from the Bible, share the meal, and are sent out to be Christ's people in the world.

Even without special festivals, these Sundays are gifts to us that support and strengthen our spirituality.

Every Sunday is our greatest feast, with its gathering of the baptized around the risen Christ for word and meal (sundaysandseasons.com).

PRESCHOOLERS RECEIVE BIBLES

By: Bethany Calderwood

This year our four-year-old and transitional kindergarten students learned eight different Bible verses. Why? One of our verses gives the answer: "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path (Psalm 119:105)." We start every Bible story with the affirmation - we read the Bible because the Bible is true! The Bible helps us understand how much God loves us and reminds us that God is always with us. The Bible also tells us how God wants us to live.

To wrap up our school year, we gave each of our graduating students a Bible storybook. The students flipped through the pages, finding familiar stories and asking excited questions about unfamiliar stories. They can't wait to read more with their families.

We pray that they continue to treasure God's word as they learn and grow.

CELEBRATING A FAITHFUL SERVANT

By: Bethany Calderwood

"You teach preschool? Where?"

"St. John's in Boyertown."

"Do you know Mrs. Endy?"

"Why yes, I work with her upstairs."

Nothing I write here could possibly encompass what Mrs. Endy's preschool years have meant to the greater community. I'm sure I only know a small portion - after all, I've only been around for two of her 49 years of fun. Here's my simple tribute.

One teacher was named Mrs. Endy,
The students all thought she was friendly,
She taught forty-nine years,
With skill and good cheer.
We are thankful for her most immensely!

In 49 years of preschool. . .

How many times do you sing the ABCs?

How many times do you count to 10?

How many balls do you throw?

How many bubbles do you blow?

How many glue sticks do you use?

How many pencils do you sharpen?

How many rolls of tape do you unravel?

How many projects do you staple to the bulletin board?

How many jars of paint do you empty?

How many shoes do you tie?

How many stories do you read?

How many songs do you sing?

How many hugs do you give?

Numbers are impressive, but they don't tell the whole story. After all, in preschool we don't count past 100.
Let's be honest, sometimes we don't even count past 10. We're learning, after all.

But what about the power of one?

For every one hand that drew more clearly --

For every one foot that stepped steadier --

For every one mind that grew smarter --

For every one voice that grew stronger --

For every one heart that felt loved --

For every one hand that was held --

One child loved on the way,

One parent heard and seen,

One colleague graciously supported,

Over and over again. . .

. . . Hear the Holy Spirit whisper, "Well done, faithful one."

. . . Hear your community add their voices:

Thank you, Mrs. Endy! You're the best!

2025 SUMMER SMALL GROUPS

Join with us this summer as we offer our most requested and new learning opportunities! Descriptions of each study are included below. Register on our website, after worship in the Narthex, or by calling the church office at 610-369-1024.

New Member Class focused on Lutheran Trump Cards by Dave Daubert
(2 sessions) Monday, June 9 & 16 at 6:30 pm

Leader: Jennifer Schlegel | Location: St. John's Conference Room

This small group offering dives into Lutheran Protestantism. Learn more about core Lutheran theology as explained in Lutheran Trump Cards. This is an accessible and brief text by Dave Daubert, a Lutheran pastor, teacher, consultant, and coach. Daubert provides insights to what it means to be a Lutheran Christian and how to practice Lutheran Christianity in the contemporary church. This abbreviated class is intended for anyone currently pursuing membership at St. John's.

The Chosen

(4 sessions) Tuesday, June 17, 24 & July 8, 15 at 6:30 pm

Leader: Brian Moatz | Location: St. John's Conference Room

'The Chosen' is a groundbreaking Christian TV series that depicts the life and ministry of Jesus through the eyes of those who knew him. The series focuses on the disciples of Jesus and explores their relationships with him and each other. 'The Chosen' aims to share an authentic and intimate look at Jesus' life and teachings, seen through the perspective of those who interacted with him. The series is set against the backdrop of first-century Israel, including the Roman oppression and Jewish culture of the time. The series' creator, Dallas Jenkins, hopes to inspire viewers to learn more about Jesus and the Bible. The series includes elements of violence, deception, and other themes, and is rated for ages 12 and up. The director notes that 'The Chosen' does not always follow scripture literally but aims to offer an engaging and bold reimagining of Jesus' life.

ScriptureDoodle: A Devotional Experience by April Knight
(4 sessions) Thursday, June 19, 26 & July 3, 10 at 6:30 pm

Leader: John Gheer | Location: St. John's Conference Room

Often, in the busyness of life, Christians forget that God created them to enjoy creativity. With guided instruction and completed examples, we will draw closer to God through our own art. More than a coloring book, ScriptureDoodle is a combination of Bible study, creative expression, and artistic community with artwork shared online at #scripturedoodle. Exploring topics such as being generous, finding rest, and facing grief, ScriptureDoodle gives the heart the creative space it needs. This book stimulates the reader's imagination and helps integrate God's Word into everyday life. All ages and levels of artistic talent warmly invited!

Grateful: The Subversive Practice of Giving Thanks by Diana Butler Bass
(6 sessions) Monday, July 14, 21, 28 & August 4, 11, 18 at 6:30 pm

Leader: Jennifer Schlegel | Location: St. John's Conference Room

Gratitude is resilience of sorts, the defiance of kindness in the face of anger, of connection in the face of division, and of hope in the face of fear. . . gratitude empowers us. It makes joy and love, possible. It rearranges the way we see and experience what is all around us. Gratitude makes all things new. It transforms how we understand what is broken and gives us the ability to act more joyfully and with hope. That is why gratitude is central to all the world's religions. As a practice, it embodies the wisdom of humanity's greatest spiritual teachers: the love of neighbor. Gratitude takes us from abstract belief to living compassion in the world.

Teach Us to Pray: The Lord's Prayer in the Early Church and Today by Justo González
(4 sessions) Tuesday, July 22, 29 & August 5, 12 at 6:30 pm

Leader: Bonnie Moatz | Location: St. John's Conference Room

The Lord's Prayer is one of the oldest and most widely used short summaries not only of how Christians pray but of what they believe about God, the world, and humankind. Justo González, whose textbooks have taught Christian doctrine and history to thousands of pastors, draws on scripture, the Church Fathers, and his own life experience to make this vital prayer from the Christian past comprehensible for readers who want to understand—and live—Christianity in the present. Teach Us to Pray is for all who are learning or practicing Christian discipleship and ministry, from college students and motivated laypeople to veteran pastors and teachers.

Lutheran Trump Cards by Dave Daubert
(5 sessions) Monday, September 15, 22, 29 & October 6, 13 at 6:30 pm

Leader: Jennifer Schlegel | Location: St. John's Conference Room

This small group offering dives into Lutheran Protestantism. Learn more about core Lutheran theology as explained in Lutheran Trump Cards. This is an accessible and brief text by Dave Daubert, a Lutheran pastor, teacher, consultant, and coach. Daubert provides insights to what it means to be a Lutheran Christian and how to practice Lutheran Christianity in the contemporary church. Come learn about our core Lutheran values and how we might enhance them in our Lutheran community that is St. John's. This class is appropriate for anyone who wants to gain or refresh their knowledge of what it means to be a Lutheran Protestant Christian and learn how to follow through with Lutheran action and witness.
